

Cycling Champion of the Year 2017

We are seeking nominations for a new annual award of 'Cycling Champion of the Year 2017', to be awarded at an evening Civic Reception at Glasgow's City Chambers as part of Cycling Scotland's annual conference 2017. This award is promoted and awarded jointly by Cycling Scotland, Cycling UK, Scottish Cycling and Sustrans Scotland.

The Cycling Champion of the Year will be presented to an individual whose contribution has made a significant impact on cycling at a local, regional or national level.

Working in their organisation, workplace, campus, school, community, group or club, this individual will have:

- demonstrated leadership, going above and beyond;
- played an influential role in the delivery of services, initiatives, campaigns or projects;
- expanded the reach of cycling to more people;
- been a source of inspiration and best practice

Please tell us, in less than 250 words, why your nomination should be awarded Cycling Champion of the Year, demonstrating how they meet the criteria above and any key achievements during the past year (July 2016 to July 2017).

Shortlisted nominees will be invited to the Civic Reception at 6pm on Monday 30th October 2017 in Glasgow City Chambers.

To make a nomination please email info@cycling.scot, marked 'Cycling Champion Award', by noon on Monday 2nd October
